Disciple Making

Recently, I had a conversation with colleague and well-respected Covington Pastor, The Reverend Dr. Mallory Callahan, Sr. He made a statement that has at the same time troubled me and motivated me. He said, “We have excellent programs in the church. We have a great music program and a great children’s program, but we have failed to make disciples.” A friend made a similar statement to me recently. He said, “I don’t feel like I’m being the spiritual leader I need to be in my home and I’d like to change that.”

The last words we read in Matthew’s gospel are from the lips of Jesus and are referred to as, “The Great Commission.” It reads, “Go to the people of all nations and make them my disciples. Baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and teach them to do everything I have told you. I will be with you always, even until the end of the world.”

How does the church and more specifically, Covington Presbyterian Church, go about making disciples? Jesus’ words say baptize and teach. It would be great to think that there is one curriculum, one class, or program that would fix this deficit of teaching. The truth of Rev. Callahan’s statement rings true. It is not a curriculum, class, or program that will fix it.

There are three words in the New Testament related to disciple. Μαθητεύω (matheteuo) appears 4 times in the New Testament and means to teach; to make a disciple; to become a disciple. Διάκονος (diakonos) appears 29 times in the New Testament and means servant, minister, or a person who renders service and help to others. Δολος (doulos) appears 126 times in the New Testament and means servant or slave. Implied in all of these terms is the idea of a relationship and most often relationships are not created and built in mass, but rather one on one. Disciple making happens as we build relationships one on one with those in our circles. We do not need to go far outside our circles to find those to whom we can disciple and at the same time be discipled.

Summer is on the way and many of us will be going in many different directions. I am challenging each of us to find one person with whom we can build a stronger spiritual relationship and embark upon the work of disciple making. You need not give up the groups you are participating in at present. Continue in those groups and prayerfully consider the one person you think you might enjoy learning from and with and approach that person. It often seems more difficult than it is in actuality. Go and make disciples!

Serving with you,
Jeff

Thank you

"A person can leave Louisiana but Louisiana never leaves a person."

These words were made especially true in the last month after the passing of my grandfather. The number of calls and letters from the fine folks of CPC were more than I can count. We appreciate your words and prayers and were grateful to live near him for the last 7 months of his life. We miss you all and pray that God continues to bless and strengthen the work and ministry of CPC.

Prime Timers
SENIOR ADULT MINISTRY

On Sunday, May 20th all Prime Timers are invited to gather in the Fellowship Hall after the worship service for lunch and a program. Lunch will be provided. The program includes a speaker, Robert V.V. Hurst, DDS. Dr. Hurst will speak about the book he wrote titled “Life’s Fingerprint - How Birth Order Affects Your Path Throughout Life.”

In “Life's Fingerprint”, Dr. Robert V. V. Hurst offers an illustrative and funny look at how birth order is directly related to behavior—how people work, how people live, and how people love. A revealing questionnaire helps you navigate the variety of information Dr. Hurst offers to help you pinpoint your real birth order.

Unique to this book is the discussion of double birth order and families within families. This concept is the Rosetta stone of understanding birth order theory, and it is why just your ordinal birth order, or number order of birth, is sometimes not your real birth order.

“Life's Fingerprint: How Birth Order Affects Your Path Throughout Life” will help you understand yourself and show you how to better interact with your family, friends, and coworkers.

PW CIRCLES:
The Presbyterian Women will continue with the booklet they are currently studying, “Cloud of Witnesses.” The Night Circle will meet on Tuesday, May 8 at 5:30pm at CPC and is led by Dianne Kaack. Please note the Mary/Martha Circle will be cancelled this month.

LADIES Spring Gathering

ALL LADIES ARE INVITED TO A LADIES’ SPRING GATHERING LUNCHEON
SATURDAY, MAY 5TH AT 1 PM
IN THE FELLOWSHIP HALL
EVERYTHING IS PROVIDED
A BIRTHDAY OFFERING WILL BE RECEIVED.
DETAILS ABOUT THE OFFERING ARE ON THE NEXT PAGE.
BIRTHDAY OFFERING:
During the Ladies Spring Gathering on Saturday, May 5th, a birthday offering will be received. Detailed information about this offering and how it is used is below. If you have any questions, please contact Betty Badeaux. jamesbadeaux@aol.com.

Welcome to This Place
Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need (Heb. 4:16, NASB).

The Birthday Offering of Presbyterian Women celebrates Presbyterian women’s history of mission giving. It was launched in 1922 to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Woman’s Auxiliary in the Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS). Since that time, the Birthday Offering has become an annual tradition and has funded nearly 100 major mission projects that continue to make a difference in the lives of women and children. While the projects and donation amounts have changed, Presbyterian Women’s commitment to improving the lives of women and children has not. We continue to need broad, consistent support from Presbyterian women and others in order to continue funding mission projects like the ones selected for 2018. We ask that you give as you have been blessed, generously and as led by the Holy Spirit. Give through your PW group, or give online at www.presbyterianwomen.org/give. Your gifts make a difference!

Cottage Village, a Tiny-house Community for Low-income Residents
COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON
Cottage Village will provide quality, affordable housing and a safe, structured social community for individuals and families with low or very low incomes. This Birthday Offering grant will be used to help build 13 tiny houses and a central shared-use area that will serve as a compassionate and protective community for vulnerable rural citizens.

Village of Grace Center for Physical and Spiritual Health
TEGUICALPA, HONDURAS
This Birthday Offering grant will make it possible for the Presbytery of Honduras to purchase the Village of Grace Center for Physical and Spiritual Health near Tegucigalpa. Originally established by Presbyterian mission co-workers, the retreat center will be managed by Presbyterian women in Honduras. It will offer international hospitality for retreats, workshops and mission teams from the PC(USA), Solar Under the Sun and Living Waters for the World.

The Dwelling Place
MINNEAPOLIS AND ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA
The Dwelling Place was established in 1998 to provide for the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of women and their children following their escape from a violent partner. Transitional housing, education, food, clothing, trauma-informed support services, programming and mentoring for women are all part of the mission of The Dwelling Place. This Birthday Offering grant will help The Dwelling Place purchase a vacant lot where they will construct a multi-use building with spaces suitable for large and small group programming, one-on-one case management, safe living space and staff offices. With the additional building, The Dwelling Place will be able to serve even more women and children who are seeking safety.

On Sunday, April 15, the youth cleaned the kitchen in the Fellowship Hall. Thank you to all who helped!!

The youth will have an end of the year school party on Sunday, May 20th, from 4-6 PM. Everyone is welcome to bring a friend. For more details, please see Michelle Broadrick.

Please continue to bring cans which help with fund raising.

In the month of May, CPC youth will be holding fundraisers. Watch for announcements regarding the date and plan to come!

There will also be a Silent Auction from May 6-13th. A lot of wonderful goodies and crafts will be offered. A paper will be attached to each displayed item and if you would like to bid on it, simply write your name and the amount of the bid on the paper provided. The winners of the auction will be contacted starting Monday, May 14th.

The auction will help raise funds to enable the youth to go to summer camps.

“I was born and raised in the Gulf Coast town of Pascagoula, MS. In 1978 I moved to Dallas to make my fame and fortune. That’s what I told my family anyway. I went to work in Dallas for the Trammell Crow Company in accounting. I was soon to meet the love of my life Stan Mize. We married in 1979 and together raised two incredible sons, Jay and Tim Mize.

We decided that Dallas wasn’t a place we wanted to raise our children so when Stan was offered a position as DP Director for Lane Processing now Tyson’s Chicken, we moved to Mena, AR. At that time while raising little ones, I continued my education at Henderson State University. After five years we moved to Fayetteville, AR and then decided to move closer back to my family in Mississippi. Stan was offered a job in Jackson, MS and that’s where we lived and worked for the 24 years.

When our boys were grown and we started thinking about retirement, we both agreed we wanted to retire close to Fairhope, AL. Our next adventure was Summerdale, AL where we had 5 acres, built our home, barn and raised/showed alpacas. It was a wonderful time for both me and Stan.

In 2012 Stan passed away in a tragic accident. After keeping the farm going for another 5 years, I decided that was time to move closer to my kids and grandkids in Mandeville, La. I have been so blessed with my family and church family. I truly believe God wanted me to be right where I am today. My interests include sewing, knitting, weaving, spinning yarn and playing with my grandsons. I truly have a great life.”
Elijah: A Sacred Choral work by Felix Mendelssohn

One of my favorite composers in the world of classical music is Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847). His music, however, is often critiqued as being unadventurous and backward looking for its time. Mendelssohn lived in a time when classical music was going through very dramatic changes. By the time Mendelssohn wrote his first well known piece of music, Overture to a Midsummer Night’s Dream, Beethoven had already written his infinitely revolutionary Symphony no. 9 in D minor. Beethoven’s music pushed the composers around him to write music in a way that had never been done before. This is what’s known as the Romantic Era of classical music (1823-1900). The Romantic Era gives us composers like Chopin, Schumann, and Brahms, whose music is so far removed from that of earlier composers like Mozart, Haydn, Handel, and Bach that the styles seem to have almost nothing in common with each other. Mendelssohn, however, was an avid lover of these earlier composers, and even began a revival of Bach’s music. In 1829, Mendelssohn gave the first public performance of Bach’s, Saint Mathew Passion, making the name Johan Sebastian Bach a household name for the first time since his death in 1750. Earlier styles heavily influenced Mendelssohn’s compositional output, while contemporaries of Mendelssohn only lightly influenced him. This gives us a style of music that is most definitely romantic in nature, but is also very traditional in form, orchestration, and texture.

Besides influencing his compositional style, older composers also influenced the types of pieces he composed. Mendelssohn loved oratorios (an example of which is the Saint Mathew Passion). Oratorios originated in the early 18th century but had fallen out of fashion by the turn of the 19th century. An oratorio is traditionally a composition written for choir, orchestra, and vocal soloists, and often tells a biblical story. Simply put, an oratorio is very similar to an opera. An oratorio complete with characters (soloists), a plot (usually taken from the bible), and a chorus. The difference is, an oratorio is not physically acted out like an opera.

One such oratorio by Mendelssohn is Elijah, drawn from 1st and 2nd Kings in the Old Testament. My favorite scene from this oratorio is when Elijah challenges the prophets of Baal to build an altar and ask their god to light it for them (movements 10-14). This scene begins with Elijah telling the worshipers of Baal to call to their god and light the fire, saying, “Your numbers are many, and I am only but one prophet of the Lord.” Here, the chorus plays the part of the worshipers of Baal. They sing a mighty chorus, saying, “Baal, we cry to thee! Hear our call and answer us!” Their pleas grow louder and more frantic as the number goes on and they get no response from their god. Then, Elijah sings, “Call him louder! He is a god! He is on a journey, or he sleepeth! So awaken him, call him louder!” The chorus then begins again, singing even louder and more frantically. Yet again, they hear nothing from their god. Elijah then says again, “Call him louder! He heareth not. Leap upon the altar you have made! Call him and prophesy, not a voice will answer you, none will listen, none heed you!” The chorus then begins again. This time Mendelssohn pushes the limit of the musicians, calling for the loudest sound they can possibly produce, and adding brass instruments to give the orchestra an extra boost. At the end of this movement, the entire ensemble has long awkward pauses written in, representing the prophets of Baal waiting for the fire from their god.

Here the mood of the music changes dramatically. Elijah decides it is time for him to call upon the one true God to light the fire upon his altar. However, Elijah does not have to stomp, jump, and scream like the followers of Baal. Instead, he sings in almost a whisper the most beautiful aria saying, “Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; this day let it be known that Thou art God, and I am thy servant.” Mendelssohn paints a beautiful picture in this scene. He shows us that we don’t have to struggle to get God’s attention. He hears us, even if we whisper.

I encourage you to give this great piece of music and listen! This is an excellent example of Mendelssohn’s music both looking back on old traditions, and looking toward the future of music.
CPR SURVEY FORM: CPC is trying to improve the overall safety for our related events. This form, which, when filled out, will help the church know if there are any people here that are trained to perform first aid and CPR, who can operate the Automatic Electronic Defibrillator (AED) and who would be comfortable responding to an emergency if at CPC for an event. At some point in the future, the church will assess how many people will be interested in attending a First Aid/CPR/AED training class based on the survey.

We offer several small group ministries each week and month:

Sunday Morning:

9:15 am - Connections Class in the Ria Warner Classroom - A group dedicated to reading the “Upper Room” devotional series each week.

9:15 am - ADULT BIBLE STUDY - The Bible Study group that meets in the room next to the church office at 9:15 is a study on various topics and books of the Bible.

9:00 am - Fellowship Class in the Fellowship Hall - A group dedicated to prayer, community, and intriguing discussion. Curriculum varies. The current Bible study is from the book titled “The Story, The Bible as One Continuous Story of God and His People.” Class members will rotate leading the weekly sessions. This will be an ongoing Bible study for many weeks and all adults are invited to join us.

Wednesday Morning: 10 am - Wednesday morning Bible study group that joins together every week to discuss various topics. The current study is titled “A Clash of Kingdoms” by Ray Vander Laan. Like the Roman Empire, today’s governments or organizations can become centered on power and believe their messages are the “good news.” As Christians, we’re called to proclaim God’s name in all the earth, but how do we do that in the midst of false gospels? Discover how Paul communicated the Good News of Christ to Philippi, a Roman colony that worshipped false gods. Consider the message you convey to the world - as Ray Vander Laan takes you deeper into the culture of ancient Philippi.

Every other week - Boomers Group - A group of mostly Baby Boomers who delve into various book studies. Look in the newsletter or church bulletin for more details. For the month of April the Boomers will meet on May 6 and May 20 in the Fellowship Hall.

Twice Monthly:

Pastors’ Bible Study - An overview of the Bible led by Rev. Zac Ritchie and Rev. Jeff Sims. Meetings alternate:

For the month of May:
- Friday, May 4, 12:30PM Madisonville Presbyterian Church.
- Friday, May 18, 12:30PM Covington Presbyterian Church

This is the last one until the Fall. Please watch for announcements near the end of the summer as to the start up date.

Monthly: Presbyterian Women Mary Martha Circle - The second Tuesday of the month: Mary/Martha Circle is cancelled for the month of May. The Night circle will meet on May 8 at 5:30pm in the Fellowship Hall.

Seniors’ Group (“Prime Timers”) - A mostly social gathering of Senior Adults who gather for fellowship, food and prayer. Please see the announcement on page 2 regarding the scheduled activity of lunch and a program on May 20th.
Covington Presbyterian is proud to serve several local missions within our community. If you are interested in helping with one (or more!) of our local missions, contact Jason Johnston @ 985-789-5994.

The Northshore Food Bank provides food assistance to more than 375 individuals and families each week who live at or below the 130% federal poverty guidelines and have found themselves in need in our community. After qualifying for assistance, an individual can receive a minimum of 35 lbs. of food once each month and families can receive a minimum of 70 lbs. of food each month. The Food Bank is supported by local food drives held by individuals, schools, civic organizations and businesses, as well as monetary donations and Second Harvest donations.

Habitat for Humanity St Tammany West an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, a non-profit, ecumenical Christian housing organization. Habitat for Humanity works in partnership with local people in need to build decent, affordable housing. The houses are then sold to qualifying families at no profit and with no interest charged, allowing many to enjoy the pride and dignity of homeownership. The dedication of everyone involved, from homeowner, to staff, to volunteers, makes it all happen.

The proceeds from the ReStore help to build homes every year. Since 2000, the ReStore has funded the construction of 25 homes.

The Family Promise Network Program brings shelter, meals, and support services to families who lose their homes. It is a cost-efficient, effective community response to family homelessness. We are an affiliate church and can provide meals an assistance to host congregations.
